

Summer Arts Camp 2014 Final Report

The camp overall was great success! Thirty four campers attended the ½ day (morning only) camp. Net profit = $1600.31 (see separate attachment for detailed breakdown and 2015 projected budget)

HUGE thanks to all the coordinators (Anna Folsom, Kristi Shea, Dakari Ralph), the instructors (Brandt Bowen, Dan Klauder, Anna Folsom, Amy Sharrer, Lora Mahoney, Danielle Terry, Jack Horner and Victoria Peterson.

Many have already expressed interest in being involved in next year's camp.

A survey was conducted and compiled (see separate attachment). Good suggestions for expanding/improving next year's camp.

I am almost done compiling my information to provide a folder of documents for the next Camp Coordinator.

I will contact those people expressing an interest in the Summer Arts Camp on the registration survey to try to identify a coordinator and/or committee of folks to get started this fall on the planning for next summer.
